

Biotech Kick-Off

Professional Development for All New and Returning Teachers

Saturday • September 12, 2009 • 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Cañada College • 4200 Farm Hill Blvd. • Redwood City • Park in lot #1(North)

8:30 am: SIGN IN • CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST • NETWORKING Cafeteria-Blg 5

Biodiversity, Conservation and Biotechnology

at 9 am in Room 2-10

Featured speakers

Dr. Healy Hamilton, California Academy of Sciences

and

Dr. Tyrone Hayes, UC Berkeley

Exhibits by various Bay Area organizations and teachers

12 - 1 pm: CAFETERIA LUNCH • NETWORKING • EXHIBITS

12 pm: Lead Teacher Lunch Meeting in Room 2-10

1 - 3:30 pm: AFTERNOON WORKSHOPS

Brain-Compatible Strategies and Beyond!

Learn How to Engage and Motivate Your Students!

Octavio Rodriguez
Sequoia High School

Room 17-105

Enhance Biology Labs with Vernier Probes!

Get Trained with the Conductivity Probe and Bring Ideas Back for Labs!

Clarence Bakken
Vernier

Room 16-212

Water Issues in California and the World

Motivate Your Students with Current Info and Activities!

Helena Carmena
CA Academy Of Sciences

Room 17-103

New BABEC Wolbachia Bacteria Lab

Preview the New Environmental PCR lab that contributes to ongoing national research!

Nicole Markelz, BABEC
and Kara Marshall Westmoor High School

Room 16-204

Registration deadline: Thursday, September 3, 2009.

- * San Mateo County teachers will receive a stipend for full-day attendance!
- * San José State University credits available; bring your checkbook.

REGISTER ONLINE at <http://tinyurl.com/09KO-REG> - Limit 100 participants.